

29 May 2007

Sesame Street Visits Changi Airport

The muppets from Sesame Street delighted passengers at Changi Airport this evening when Elmo and Cookie Monster paid a special visit to Terminal 1 Departure / Transit Mall. The much-loved muppets are in Singapore for Sesame Street Live - Elmo's Colouring Book, a musical extravaganza taking place on 22-24 June at Downtown East.

Furry red Elmo and the ever-hungry Cookie Monster met and mingled with passengers. Especially thrilled were children from the education centre Learning Vision who got to meet their favourite characters up close and personal. Elmo and Cookie Monster even walked down to the Arrival Hall to meet fans who had been eagerly awaiting their arrival in Singapore.

As part of the Meet-and-Greet, 2 lucky passengers won 2 pairs of tickets to Elmo's Colouring Book. Other activities at the Meet-and-Greet included glitter tattoo, photo kiosks and a caricaturist.

This is the second Meet-and-Greet session that CAAS has held in a week. Last Thursday (24 May 2007), Changi Airport played host to cartoon characters SpongeBob SquarePants and his buddies at Terminal 1, as part of the Famous Personalities Programme. Changi Airport is the first airport in the world to organise this programme for travellers in transit.