

11 Jun 2008

Reminiscing Changi Airport Terminal 1

Share your precious memories of Changi Airport's grand old dame in Reminiscing Changi Airport Terminal 1. Reminiscing is a photo contest offering members of the public an opportunity to share their special moments at Terminal 1 (T1). Organised by the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore (CAAS), the competition is now open for entries. Reminiscing is being held in conjunction with the upgrading of T1, which commenced in May.

Contestants can submit photos of the terminal building or snapshots taken with family and friends at T1. Short listed entries will be displayed on the contest website and at an exhibition at T1's departure hall from 14 July 2008 and at T1's Transit Mall from 30 July 2008. The top three entries that best capture the hearts of the judges will win prizes such as an All Nippon Airways return ticket from Singapore to Tokyo, OSIM products, a CASIO digital camera and an MP4 player.

Members of the public can also vote for their favourite photo among the short listed entries. The photo that receives the highest number of votes will win the Voters' Choice award. In addition, one lucky person will be drawn from those who voted for the Voters' Choice. Both the Voters' Choice award winner and the voter can win prizes such as Sony Ericsson and Samsung mobile phones and OSIM products. All results will be unveiled on 15 August 2008.

The contest is open for entries till 30 June 2008. Contestants can submit their photos at www.changiairport.com/t1uphotos or via Changi Airport's main website (www.changiairport.com).

About T1 upgrading : Works to upgrade T1 commenced in May 2008. The upgrade will rejuvenate the terminal and enhance the passenger experience at T1. The works are scheduled to be completed in 2011.