HAVE A FREE CUPPA ON MONDAY MORNINGS AT SINGAPORE CHANGI AIRPORT

Passengers at Singapore Changi Airport can soon look forward to a free cup of freshly-brewed coffee to start their Monday mornings. "Java Mondays with Changi", which begins this Monday, 17 August 2009, will run for the next six months from 6.30 to 7.30am every Monday morning. The special treat is a gesture from Changi Airport Group to delight passengers with a free cup of coffee to perk up their Monday mornings and chase the "Monday blues" away.

2 The complimentary coffee to be distributed is the brew of the day from Starbucks. To get the free treat, passengers just need to look out for staff carrying dispensers. The coffee will be distributed at the Departure Check-In Halls and Baggage Claim Halls at Terminals 1, 2 and 3.
